

RETREAT POLICIES

Seeker Springs is a Christian facility and the following standards help assure a Christ-centered environment:

1. Alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, firearms, and fireworks are not permitted. Also, please assist us in making this a tobacco-free environment.
2. Modest dress is required at all times (if inappropriate, you will be asked to change).
3. Profanity will not be permitted.
4. Each group should have one (1) adult for every ten (10) youth or children.
5. The pool and ropes course are off-limits unless a Seeker Springs staff is on duty.
6. Girls may wear a two piece bathing suit ONLY with a dark colored t-shirt.
7. Children 11 and under and beginner swimmers must be accompanied by an adult in the pool area.
8. Adult leaders will be responsible for the conduct of their group and must not leave youth or children campers unattended.
9. No boys shall be allowed in girls' rooms or girls in boys' rooms.
10. All accidents/incidents MUST be promptly reported to Seeker Springs staff.
11. Each overnight camper must furnish their own linens, pillow, towels, and toiletries.
12. Groups may have use of the kitchen to do their own cooking; we have pots, pans, etc...., but each group should bring their own paper goods. Each group will be responsible for kitchen and dining room clean-up.
13. Please help us to conserve energy by turning off lights in rooms when not in use, keeping doors closed in buildings that are heated or air-conditioned, and clearing the grounds and buildings of paper and other trash before leaving camp.

As a Renting Organization, you are required to obtain the following information:

- You are responsible for providing first aid and emergency transportation in the event of an emergency.
- Seeker Springs advises you to have at least one person certified in CPR and First Aid with its group.
- Seeker Springs does not provide transportation to area medical facilities. (Seeker Springs can provide a listing of area medical facilities and directions to the facilities if needed.)
- You shall obtain the names and addresses of all its participants, emergency contact names, and telephone numbers for all your participants, a listing of any persons with known health conditions requiring treatment, restriction, or other accommodation while on site, and for minors without a parent on site, signed permission to seek emergency treatment or a signed religious waiver, and share appropriate information with Seeker Springs.
- Seeker Springs will provide an area for first aid where topical supplies and equipment are readily available. (By law, certain medications must be kept locked up at all times.)
